Located within the exclusive enclave of Real de Amapas, a select address within Conchas Chinas, this custom-built villa was designed by Arq. Enrique Garcia, one of Puerto Vallarta's most prestigious architects. Being the first villa built in the area, allowed the owners to select the best location in terms of panoramic views and accessibility. The best materials and care of detail were used in this Mexican Contemporary Style Villa, which has all the amenities needed to enjoy luxurious, yet relaxed tropical living. A must to see, if you are looking for an exceptional villa.
